

Community Is Invited To Yuletide Programs

The Rev. Harold Fickett, Sr., interim pastor of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, and Mrs. Ronald Mullins, music director, have invited the community to attend three special Christmas music programs at the church.

Sunday at 7 p.m. the Campus Choir, directed by Mrs. Michael Medved, will present "A Song Unending" by John Peterson. This cantata will be narrated by William Fuqua and will feature the following soloists: Mrs. Richard McGinty and Sandra Turnage,

Readers Selected By Church

Raymond Babb and Mrs. Elizabeth Hauser have been elected readers of the First Church of Christ Scientist, of Torrance.

Babb, elected first reader, and Mrs. Hauser, second reader, will begin their three-year terms in January. They replace retiring Readers Lyle LaMue and Mrs. Betty Eardley.

Since there are no ordained clergy in the Christian Science Church, all church functions are conducted by the local members. The two readers will carry the primary responsibility for the Sunday and Wednesday evening services of the church.

SUNDAY SERVICES are based on references from the Bible and the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science. The Sunday lesson-sermon is based on one of 26 topics and each topic is covered twice each year, using different references each time.

Wednesday evening services, conducted by the first reader, include a period for individual members of the congregation to give testimonies, as well as readings from the Bible and the church textbook.

The fifth annual musical presentation will be given Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m., at the Torrance Stake Center. The public is invited.

Mothers' Musical Planned

The Singing Mothers of the Torrance Stake, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, will present their fifth annual musical Friday and Saturday, Dec. 8 and 9, 8 p.m., at the Torrance Stake Center, 4110 W. 226th St.

The chorus is comprised of 55 Mormon women from the Torrance Stake area, which includes Redondo Beach, Lomita, San Pedro, Wilmington, Palos Verdes Estates, Rolling Hills, and Torrance. The Christmas concert will feature spiritual music of the season as well as lighter selections.

Mrs. Roland E. Gagon has conducted the group since its inception. This year, Mrs. Frederick L. Hoopes will serve as accompanist.

Featured on the program will be soloist Mrs. Jerry V. Mortenson; folk singers Karen and Paul Lookinland and their children; and the Songsmiths.

Tickets may be purchased at the door. The public is invited.

Temple Beth Torah Plans Family Night

Southwest Temple Beth Torah, located at 14725 S. Gramercy Place, Gardena, sets aside one Friday evening in each year to officially welcome the new member families and to consecrate the children of the temple school who have just started their religious education.

This special service will take place on Friday. Joseph Canter, president, and Emil Schafer, religious chairman, invite all Jewish residents of the area and their families to attend this service.

Ladies Guild Now Growing Money Tree

The Ladies Guild of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church will hold its annual Christmas potluck luncheon Wednesday, Dec. 13, at noon in the Guild Hall, following the 10 a.m. business meeting.

Mrs. Margaret Good will present the devotional and WSW ladies will serve. Members will place their Christmas offerings on a money tree. These donations will be used to purchase bed sheets for the Red Bird Mission in Kentucky.

Bob Oman, membership chairman, and Charles Corn, educational chairman, will greet the 28 new families. The children will take part in the Family Night Service with a presentation of songs.

The service will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat, religious social hour, in honor of the families and students.

Services are conducted by Dr. Henry E. Kraus, rabbi, assisted by Daniel Mayerson, cantor.
